Principle 15: Assurance The governing body should ensure that assurance services and functions enable an effective control environment, and that these support the integrity of information for internal decision-making and of the organisation's external reports.	AfroCentric has a delegated Combined Assurance Committee that ensures the effective implementation of controls and processes by all assurance providers from all levels of defence. This is strictly monitored by the Audit and Risk Committee. AfroCentric has an independent Internal Audit function, headed by the CAE and governed by an approved Internal Audit Charter, which outlines the role, organisational status authority, responsibilities and scope of Internal Audit activity.	Corporate Governance Report – Governance policies, procedures and processes (page 103 - 104)
Stakeholder relationships
Principle 16: Stakeholders In the execution of its governance role and responsibilities, the governing body should adopt a stakeholder-inclusive approach that balances the needs, interests and expectations of material stakeholders in the best interests of the organisation over time.	AfroCentric considers its stakeholders as individuals and groups interested in or affected by our activities. They range from employees to the external bodies who influence us. The Board and executive management adopt an inclusive approach to stakeholder management. We engage our stakeholders responsively, constructively, collaboratively and transparently to address their material needs, interests and expectations, and respond in a mutually beneficial manner. Our Social and Ethics Committee provides governance oversight to stakeholder engagement.	Integrated Report – Stakeholder Engagement (page 27 - 32)
